Dear Mr Hassanin,

An official complaint has been filed against the leadership ticket headed by yourself.

I have been informed that Mr. Thomas Ginivan, current 1st Vice-President of the United Nations Staff Union and candidate to the same post in your ticket, sent the attached electronic mail on 02 June 2011 to the staff-at-large.

The complaint states that Mr. Ginivan used a computer located at the UNSU office to send the e-mail communication in question, which was then further distributed utilizing the list of e-mail addresses of staff members compiled by the UNSU office.

Article 6.15.1 of the Regulations of the United Nations Staff Union states that, "No Union facilities shall be used for any campaign purposes throughout the entirety of the election process".

This action constitutes a clear violation of Article 6.15.1 of the UNSU Statutes and Regulations.

In view of the above, I request that you provide clarification immediately in order to avoid being disqualified from the race.
